

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Sinclair's airing "Stolen Honor" under the guise of news is a troubling abuse of the free public airwaves. The airwaves are the property of the people. This is an unfair manipulation of the public during an election and a direct attempt to sway the election. One sided programming does not serve democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you.
